Part I Preface

The following notes concerned with genealogical references to the KY branch of the Sandidge family represent the author's search among court-house records of Green Co., KY, Albemarle County, and Spotsylvania Co., VA and other records, began in 1939. The World War II intervened and because of a great number of requests from members and descendants of the Sandidge Family for copies of these notes, the author has decided to publish such material as he now has on hand rather than to continue the study of this family which the War Years interrupted.

The author has made every effort to deal only with proven and authentic records in preparing these notes. Fancy and tradition are interesting in genealogy but as a rule are often misleading and untrue. On the basis of our study of this family we have reached the following conclusions:

The Sandidge family is of Anglo-Saxon origin, probably in the North of England, near the border of Scotland, they were Protestants, Presbyterian adherents of the Stuart Kings of England and Scotland. A careful study of the "given" names of successive generations of Sandidge men and women when compared with the history of their times will give the reader some clue as to their political beliefs. It is the author's hope that these notes will fall into the hands of some more capable descendant of this family who will have the time and the ability to prepare a comprehensive and authentic Sandidge family history.

(1) Colonel James Sandige (Sandidge spelling of the name adopted after the Revolution, name also occurs in early records as Sandage, Sandridge, etc.) settled in King & Queen County, VA about 1650 - details concerning his life are lacking at present. He came from England, but from what part or under what circumstances the author is unable to state

(2) John Sandidge, presumed to be a son of Col. James Sandidge (1), Va. Hist Magazine Vol. 31, p. 227: John Sandidge on Quit rent Roll in New Kent Co., Va 1704. The American Compendium of Genealogy, Vol. IV, states that the wife of this John Sandidge was Catherine, d. of Philip and Isabella (Hart) Pendleton, but for reasons which appear later, we believe this to be an error.

(3) William Sandidge, presumed to be the son of John Sandidge (2) and grandson of James Sandidge(1). We are now on firmer ground concerning the Sandidge Family, as follows: Richmond Times-Dispatch Genealogical Column, Feb. 1, 1914, "Taylor-Sandidge" by Elmore Dickinson, Professor at West Virginia University, states as follows: William Sandidge of Caroline Co. Married Ann Taylor, d. of John Taylor and his wife Catherine Pendleton, d. of Philip & Isabella (Hart) Pendleton, son of Henry of Norwich, England. James Taylor (i) of Carlisle, England, settled in King & Queen Co., Va, before 1650. James Taylor's 2nd marriage was to Mary Gregory. The issue from this marriage as follows: John and Ann, twins; John died young. Mary, Edward, Elizabeth and another John (ii). This last John (ii) married Catherine Pendleton, and had Mary Catherine, Ann (iii) , Edmund, Isabella, John, James, Philip, Elizabeth, William and Joseph. Edmund Pendleton, brother of Ann (iii) was famous as a statesman in Colonial Virginia.

William Sandidge(3), b. ?, d. 1746, and wife Ann Taylor (iii) b. 1712-15 d. after 1754 (date unknown at present) had the following issue:

1. William (4) the eldest.
2. Mary -- married a Golson.
3. James
4. David.
5. John - the youngest

We Give below a Copy of William Sandidge's Will, obtained by the author from Spotsylvania Courthouse in Virginia:

In the name of God, amen, the 11th day of March, one thousand seven hundred and forty-six. I, William Sandige, of the parish of St. George, in the County of Spotsylvania, being very sick and weak but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given unto God, therefore calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament is to say. Principally and first of all, I recommend my soul into the hands of all Mighty God that gave it and for my body I recommend it to the earth to be buried in a Christian like and decent manner at the discretion of my Executor, nothing doubting but all the general resurrection, I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God and all touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give, devise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. Imprimis, it is my will and desire that my son, William Sandige, shall have my land at Elk's Neck with the appurtenances to him and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten forever and if William dies without heirs as aforesaid, then the said land to be sold and the money to be equally divided amongst the surviving sons, further it is my will and desire that my youngest son, John Sandige, shall have the land and plantation whereon I now live, including 400 acres with the appurtenances to him and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten forever, also one Negro boy named Abram, if John dies without heir, then the part of estate due him by my will to fall to my two sons, James and David. Item: I give to my son James Sandige five hundred acres of Land to him & the heirs of his body lawfully begotten forever, Also one Negro Fellow named Isaac, & if James dies without heirs, Then That part of estate due to him to fall to his two brothers David & John Sandage. Item: I give to my son David Sandige 500 acres of land being the Premaner part of East No. East tract to him and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten forever, also one Negro named Frank, and if my son David should die without heir as aforesaid, then the part of the estate due him by my will to fall to his two brothers James and John Sandige. Item: I give to my dear and well beloved wife three Negroes, named Peter, Inez, and Sue, and one of the choicest of all my beasts, and one of the choicest of all my beds to her own disposing forever. Item: I give to my granddaughter, Sarah Golson One hundred acres of land adjoining to the land that my son-in-law Golson, lives on, further it is my will and desire that the remaining part of the tract of land be sold and the money to be equally divided between my two sons James and David Sandige. Further it is my will and desire that my son William shall have my How & Armes, further it is my will and desire that my son William shall have one shilling, further it is my will and desire that my daughter, Golson, shall have one shilling, further it is my will and desire that all the remaining part of my estate after all debts is paid shall be equally divided between my dear and well beloved wife, Ann Sandige, and my three sons, James, David, and John Sandige, but after the death of my aforesaid wife, that part of the estate due her by my will to be equally divided between the said three sons, James, David, and John Sandige, and I hereby ordain and appoint my dear and well-beloved wife Ann, and her two sons, James and David Sandige my Executors of this my last will and testament, disallowing reckoning and disallowing all and every other former testament, will and legacies bequeathed and executed by me in any way before this time. Named, willed and bequeathed, ratified and confirmed this and no other to be my last will and testament, in witness I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the day and year above written. his

WILLIAM SANDIDGE and the move to GREEN Co. KY

(4) William Sandige, son of William (3) and Ann (iii) Taylor Sandidge, sold his Spotsylvania land about 1755 and moved to Albemarle County, VA. He married Elizabeth GRAVES (iv) born February 14, 1720, died Jan 6, 1826 (Buried in Green County, Ky). A William Sandige is mentioned as one of the signers of the "Albemarle Declaration of Independence" -1779. This was not William Sandige (4) because he died prior to 1777, but was his son William, 3rd of the name William Sandige, in line. William Sandidge 3rd was born 1754 and died 1886. In his will filed in Albemarle County, VA, he appointed John Sandidge (5), his brother, as the guardian for his son.

William Sandige (4) b. ? d. 1776, and his wife Elizabeth GRAVES (iv) b. 2/14/1720, d. j/6/1826, had the following issue:

1. Mary Sandige - married Littleberry LANE
2. Elizabeth Sandige - married William ROSS
3. Ann Sandige -- married Gideon CARR
4. Stephen Sandige
5. William Sandige 3rd (Revolutionary War soldier)
6. Milly Sandige
7. Susannah Sandige
8. John Sandige (5)

Some authorities list other sons as Augustine, Austin and Pullom, but we have no documents at hand to prove same. We quote the will of William Sandige (4) filed in Albemarle County, 1777

In the name of God. Amen, I William Sandridge of Albemarle County, being weak & infirm in body, but of Sound and Perfect mind and memory, blessed by God, do make & ordain this my last will & Testament, in the manner & form following, that is to say,

FIRST: I commend my soul unto the hands of Almighty God that gave it me, and my body to the earth to be decently interred, at the direction of my Executrix and Executor hereafter named, and as to the small worldly estate God has been pleased to bestow on me I give & bequeath as followeth, after my funeral charges & just debts are paid, I give unto my dear and loving wife Betty one Negro man Peter, the choice of my beds & my grey horse & safe & side saddle & agg & hammer during her widowhood, and till my youngest children John, Ann & Susanner comes of age, only all to work together till my debts are all paid, then all to be equally divided among all my children that remains except my land 278 acres being the plantation whereon I live & one bay colt that I give to my son John, my wife & children hereafter mentioned to have one equal part of all left after what above given & debts paid, Mary Land wife to Berry Land, Elizabeth, now wife to William Ross, Stephen Sandridge, William Sandridge, Ann Carr wife to Gideon Carr, Milly Sandridge, Ann Sandridge, and Susannah. And I do appoint my dear and loving wife Betty and Littleberry Land & William Sandridge & John Sandridge of Albemarle County, my Executrix & Executors of this my last will & testament. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this sixteen day of Jan'y one Thousand, seven hundred and seventy six.

WILLIAM SANDRIDGE (Seal)

After the death of William Sandige (4) Elizabeth (Graves) Sandidge (5), his wife and children moved to Green county, KY. Elizabeth Sandidge's (iv) will is recorded in the Green County courthouse, Greensburg, KY. We quote it as follows:

In the name of God, Amen, I Elizabeth Sandidge, of Green County, Kentucky, being extremely old and weak in body but of perfect mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, but being of sound and perfect mind before the Almighty God for the same do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner & form following (that is to say) I request that my body shall be buried in a decent, Christianlike manner and all just debts that I may owe to be paid and it will be uncertain what amount ay remain or whether anything and as my son John Sandidge having purchased the Intrust of all the legatees to his father William Sandidge estate real and personal as my dependence for all support & care taking of my person and property has ever been in my son John Sandidge I do hereby request that he will guard my intrust during my life (and if he should depart this life before me I request he will nominate some person to succeed him) and for his fillial duty and piety toward me I give and bequeath to my beloved son, John Sandidge all and every kind of goods and chattels that I may die possessed of and as all subluary things are perishable if there should not be a my dec'd a sufficiency to inter me decently I request as a mother that he will supply the deficit and I do hereby appoint John Sandidge my sole Executor of this my last will and testament. And I do hereby revoke and disanual all former will by me made in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 11th day of February in the year of our Lord one Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty Two.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the above named Elizabeth Sandidge to be her last will and testament in the presence of us who have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator.

(5) John Sandidge, son of William (4) and Elizabeth GRAVES (iv) was born in Albemarle County, VA, Nov 25, 1760. He married Mary WOOD (v) who was born 1762, Louisa County, VA, the daughter of David WOOD and his wife, a ? WATSON. David WOOD moved to Albemarle County about 1774 when he purchased land on the South West Mountain. John Sandidge (5) b. Nov 25, 1760, d. July 27, 1832, and his wife, Mary WOOD (v) b. 1762, d. March 1824, had the following issue:

1. Pleasant Sandidge, b. Oct 19, 1791 d. July 3, 1848
2. John W. Sandidge
3. Meicajah C. Sandidge
4. Christopher Sandidge (6) b. Dec 17, 1797, d. September 10, 1886
5. Dabney Sandidge
6. Aaron Burr Sandidge
7. Lucy Sandidge, b. 1/1/1800, d. ? married Sucre HIGGASON
8. Sarah Sandidge - married a LASLEY
9. Ann Sandidge - married a EDWARDS
10. Henretta Sandidge - married a GOLDER

The Green County Chapter of the Sandidge Family History opens with the purchase from David RICE of approximately 1000 acres of land in the vicinity of what is now Liletown, on Greasy Creek, Green County, by John Sandidge (5). Early deed books of Green County record numerous transactions for land and tobacco on the part of John Sandidge. The plantation of Greasy Creek was named "Wilson Hill". Here on an elevation overlooking the creek, the old Sandidge house was built, two story with two rooms in front and an ell containing the kitchen and dining room in the rear. The building was of wood frame construction weatherboarded on the outside and plastered within, two brick fireplaces on the front and one on the ell, three in all. Pleasant Sandidge was married in Virginia and brought his wife along with the remainder of the Sandidges to Kentucky. At Wilson Hill the four girls married. Lucy to Sucre HIGGASON. Sarah to a LASLEY, Ann to an EDWARDS, and Henretta, who was the youngest, to a GOLDER. Christopher (Kit) Sandidge married Elizabeth Warner WHITLOCK, the daughter of a neighboring family, Jan 25, 1821. Aaron Burr Sandidge married Lucy Trigg THOMPSON, daughter of William THOMPSON and Julia TRIGG. Dabney Sandidge married Dolly THOMPSON. At the present date we are unable to give any history concerning John W. Sandidge or Meicajah C. Sandidge. Mary Wood Sandidge, wife of John (5) died at Wilson Hill in March 1824, and was buried in the family graveyard about 300 yards west of the house. Elizabeth (iv), the mother of John, died Jan 6, 1826, and was buried beside Mary Wood. Soon after this John Sandidge lost his eyesight and Pleasant Sandidge, who was evidently the eldest son, became attorney-in-fact for his father and transacted all business for him. Sale of a tract of land in what is now Calloway or Princeton Counties is recorded in the deed books of Green County. A plot of land was deeded for the building of a church and many other land deals are recorded in the early records of Green County. John Sandidge died July 27, 1832. A copy of his will on record in the Green County Clerk's office is quoted as follows:

In the name of God, Amen: I, John Sandidge being of sound mind and memory but bearing in mind the uncertainty of this life, do make publish and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking and annulling all other wills whatsoever, which I have heretofore made and published. - In the first place it is my desire that all my just debts be paid by my Executors hereafter named out of my money, I may leave, or such other part of my estate as they may deem expedient. Item. It is my will & desire that all the property real and personal of which I may die seized and possessed after the payment of my debts & other charges on my estate shall be divided into ten equal parts and disposed of as follows. I give and bequeath to my friend, John Barrett and my son, Dabney Sandidge and the survivor and the heirs of the survivor, one equal tenth of my said estate in trust nevertheless, that the said John Barrett and Dabney Sandige and the survivor and the heirs of the survivor shall dispose of rent hire & put to use and profit according to their discretion the said tenth part of my estate, and apply the profits and proceeds thereof to the sole separate use and benefit of my daughter, Lucy Higgason and her children during the life of the said Lucy's husband and after the death of her said husband it is my will that the legal estate in and to the property hereby devised to the said John Barrett and Dabney Sandidge in trust as aforesaid shall be by them or the survivor or the heirs of the survivor conveyed in absolute property to the said Lucy & her heirs if she shall survive her husband and if not to her children & their heirs forever -- I also give and bequeath to my friend, John Barrett and my sons John W. Sandidge and Meicajah C. Sandidge and the survivor or survivors and the heirs of the survivors one equal tenth part of my estate, in trust that the said John Barrett, John W. Sandidge and Micajah Sandidge & the survivors or survivor & the heirs of the survivor shall dispose of, rent hire and put to use and profit according to their discretion the said tenth part of my estate, and apply the proceeds and profits thereof to the sole and separate use and benifit of my daughter, Sarah Lasly and her children, during the life of the said Sarah's husband and after the death of her said husband, it is my will that the said tenth part of my estate hereby devised to the said John Barrett, John W. Sandidge & Micajah C. Sandidge in trust as aforesaid shall be by them the survivors or survivor as the heirs of the survivor conveyed in absolute property to the said Sarah and her heirs if she shall survive her said husband and if not, to her children and their heirs forever. And I give and devised the other eight equal tenth parts of my estate to my children Ann Edwards, Pleasant Sandidge, Henrietta Golder, Christopher Sandidge, Aaron B. Sandidge, Dabney Sandidge, Meicajah C. Sandidge & John W. Sandidge, to each one tenth part. To have and to hold to each of them and their heirs respectively forever. Item: It is my desire that if my estate can in the opinion of my Executors, be divided in kind according to the provisions of this will without inconvenience or disadvantage, then it is to be so divided without the sale of land or slaves, but if in the opinion of my Executors it shall be for the interests & advantage of my legatees that the property should be sold, then the whole of my estate (except the six slaves hereinafter named) is to be sold on such credit as my Executors shall deem espedient, and the proceeds be divided as aforesaid & paid to the legatees respectively subject to all the trusts, limitations and provisions hereinafter specified. Item: Whereas six of my slaves, namely Cooper, and Dinah his wife, Joshua, Sousy, Betty and Hannah have been long faithful servants to me and are now somewhat advanced in years, it is my will and desire that the said six slaves shall each of them have the privilege of choosing Masters among my six sons and my son or sons to whom said slaves or any of them shall fall by such choice & selection shall receive such slave or slaves at valuation to be fixed by appraisers appointed by the County Court, toward his or their proportionate part of my estate, but if such slave or slaves shall be adjudged to be of no value, then the said appraisers are to fix the sum requisite for the support and maintenance of such slave or slaves & it shall be the duty of my son or sons receiving the said sum or sums fixed by the appraisers as aforesaid & provided for the support and maintenance of such slave or slaves respectively during life Item Having already advanced to some of my children property & money to the amount of $1096.88 for the purpose of avoiding the necessity of my legatees brining their advancement into hotchpot & the perplexities that might thence result, I have made equal advancement to all my children by executing to such of them as had received less than the aforesaid sum in property & money, my notes in writing for money and property sufficient to make up the difference so that in making the equal distribution provided for in this will no advancement made in my life time are to be taken into view or regard, except that my Executors are to pay and satisfy out of my estate the property and money mentioned in any note in writing or due bill given by me as aforesaid which may be left unsatisfied at my death. I do hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my sons, Pleasant Sandidge, Christopher Sandidge, & Aaron Burr Sandidge, Executors of this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed by hand and affixed my seal this 25th day of February, 1827. signed, sealed and published in the presence of us.

John Jones, who is a grandson of Henrietta Golder and lives on the Campbellsville road about one mile out of Greensburg, has in his possession the old family Bible of John Sandidge. In this Bible the births and deaths of most of the children are recorded. Mr. Jones states that his grandmother often told him that her father (John Sandidge) was an officer in the Revolutionary War and was present with the Army of Washington at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. We have been unable to substantiate this claim and all evidence appears to contradict same. An interesting note by John Sandidge is recorded in his Bible as follows:

February the 10th day 1806 by the help of AllMighty God I hope and trust that I never will use ardent spirits only for medicine so long as I may live.

JOHN SANDIDGE.

John Sandidge is buried in the family graveyard at "Wilson Hill" by the side of his wife and mother. The epitaph on his gravestone reads as follows:

CAP. JOHN SANDIDGE
Born Nov. 25, 1760, died July 27, 1832.

We quote other epitaphs copied from the gravestones of this old Sandidge graveyard near Liletown, Kentucky:

- (1) Elizabeth Sandidge, born Feb. 14, 1720, died Jan 6, 1826.
- (2) Mary Sandidge, born 1762, died March 1824
- (3) Brice Sandidge, born June 15, 1844, died July 27, 1847
- (4) Elizabeth Sandidge, wife of Pleasant Sandidge, died June 7, 1867
- (5) Lucy Higgason, born Jan. 1, 1800, died Dec. 21, 1855
- (6) Suprey Higgason, born Nov. 22, 1789, died Feb 19, 1958
- (7) General Pleasant Sandidge, born Dec 19, 1791, died July 3, 1849
- (8) T.G. Sandidge, born July 24, 1835, died July 27, 1861

We are now down to the sixth generation in America and the 2nd generation in Kentucky.

(6B) Christopher Sandidge, called "Kit", was born in Albemarle County, VA, Dec. 17, 1797, the son of John Sandidge (5) and Mary Wood (v) his wife. He migrated to Green County, KY with his parents and married the daughter of a neighboring family, Elizabeth Warner Whitlock, Jan. 25, 1821 (Recorded in book No. 1, Green County marriages). From this union the following children were born:

- (1) John Sandidge, head of the Crail Hope branch of the family.
- (2) James P. Sandidge, b. Dec 6, 1828 (known as Captain Sandidge)
- (3) Wirt Sandidge.
- (4) Sephira Jane (Aunt Sophia) Sandidge.

- (6) Tina Sandidge, married a Robinson.
- (7) Fanny Sandidge, married Scott Neal, Sulphur Well, Ky.
- (8) Mary Ann Sandidge, married Dr. Burks.

Christopher Sandidge inherited land and slaves from his father John (5) but appeared to lack business ability and judgment. He often lost large sums of money by going security on other peoples notes. His wife, Elizabeth, died June 28, 1881, and he went to live with his daughter Elizabeth, who had married German Porter. Sephira Jane, his maiden daughter, affectionately known to the family as Aunt Soph, accompanied him. Christopher Sandidge died Sep. 20th, 1886, and is buried with his wife near Crail Hope in the McGlasson cemetery.

(6B2) James P. Sandidge, the son of Christopher Sandidge (6B) and Elizabeth Warner Whitlock (vi-b) was born in Green County, Ky, Dec 6, 1828. He enlisted in the Union Army during the Civil War and was commissioned Captain in command of Co. B, 21st Kentucky. He served during the entire war, and was married to Harriet Jones Frogget, daughter of Alexander Frogget and Elizabeth Skaggs, Feb. 16, 1864. From this union the following children were born:

- (1) Alice Sandidge, married Wood Young.
- (2) Mary (Molly) Hasseltine Sandidge, b. April 12, 1869; married Dr. S.R. York.
- (3) Emma Sandidge, married Luther Rhea.

Captain Sandidge died at his home on Pilot Knob, Metcalfe County, Ky, June 20, 1900

(6C) Aaron Burr Sandidge was born in Albemarle County VA in 1801, son of John Sandidge (5) and Mary Wood (v). He married Lucy Trigg Thompson, b. Feb. 14, 1824, d. April 3, 1864. From this union the following children were born:

- (1) George T. Sandidge.
- (2) Mary Wood Sandidge married a Weldon. She was the mother of Dr. W.A. Weldon

--D--

(6D) Dabney Sandidge son of John Sandidge (5) and Mary Wood (v) born in Albemarle County, VA. Married Dolly Thompson, a sister of Lucy Trigg Thompson, who married Aaron Burr Sandidge. The following children from this union:

- (1) Washington Thompson Sandidge (Dr. "Wash" Sandidge).
- (2) Pleasant Sandidge.
- (3) Pack Sandidge
- (4) Kate Sandidge
- (5) Florence Sandidge.

For the benefit of those Sandidges who are kin to the Thompsons we give the following table:

William Thompson		—	(1)	Washington Thompson
			(2)	Jemima Thompson
& --			(3)	Wadda Thompson
Juda Trigg (From VA)			(4)	Edward Thompson
			(5)	Dolly Thompson,
				married Dabney Sandidge (6D)
		—	(6)	Lucy Trigg Thompson
				married Aaron Burr
				Sandidge (6C)

At the present date we are unable to give further information concerning the 6th and 7th generations of the Sandidge Family.
